Guildford Shakespeare Company invite you to join them for a summer of love with two of Shakespeare's gloriously colourful comedies

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Directed by LOTTE WAKEHAM
Designed by ANDREW RILEY

The 1960s are drawing to a close and the euphoria of the Summer of Love has cast its spell on the youth of the city. Seeking to escape their repressive society, four young lovers find themselves lost in a mystical wood populated by warring faeries, mischievous sprites and an earnest group of amateur actors, one of whom seems to have grown a donkey's head...

In the heart of Guildford, GSC invite you to join them on an adventure into the town's best kept secret; Racks Close. This wooded wilderness, just a stone's throw from the Castle, will be the perfect setting for Shakespeare's magical, comic masterpiece.

The Two Gentlemen of Verona

Directed by CHARLOTTE CONQUEST
Designed by NEIL IRISH

Young love! It's so complicated isn't it? Proteus loves Julia and Valentine loves Sylvia... but when Proteus also falls in love with Sylvia, it all begins to go horribly wrong.

Shakespeare's earliest play bursts into life with all the energy of what it is to be young and in love. Banishment, betrayal, girls disguised as boys, the politest band of outlaws and a scene-stealing dog combine in this rarely seen, joyous romantic comedy. Charlotte Conquest (Grimms' Fairy Tales, The Comedy of Errors and The Taming of the Shrew) returns to direct.
